- Clerks Report- the clerk gave her report on how the city receives grants. LMIG for 2026 has to be put in before February 2026. I also stated how the city has to publish it in the news paper for it to be approved by the state. I explained how we are handling the taxes and water bills the council made the suggestion that we go ahead and put the delinquent taxes in the paper. RBEG accounts were discussed and the mayor said that he is going to get the attorney to start looking into collecting them because it is over $80,000 behind. The minutes of all meetings are posted on the city website by our consultant was she receives them. The city clerk gave a report on the Boudleaux Bryant Festival. She noted that the city has nothing to do with this festival the Beautification Committee of Shellman. All funds raised by the committee is used to beautify the city at the committee's approval. This year the committee has chosen the Shellman Depot to do some major upgrades and replace the signs at city hall and the police department. If anymore funds are left over, they will be used to get the bathroom moved to the Mattie Davis Park.
- Public works Report -nothing to report

- Police Report- gave a report on the cases for the month.
